DEFENDANT: ARELY JANET MENDOZA 5:22-CR-00079-H-BQ(2)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. The defendant is ordered to make restitution, jointly and severally with co-defendant, Devin Joe Hernandez (01), in the amount of $30,000.00. Restitution shall be paid to the U.S. District Clerk, 1205 Texas Avenue, Room 209, Lubbock TX 79401-4091 for disbursement to:

PNC Bank

2804 Olton Road Planview, Texas 79072

Restitution is due and payable immediately, but if, upon commencement of the term of probation, any part of the $30,000.00 restitution ordered by this judgment remains unpaid, the defendant shall make payments on such unpaid balance at the rate of at least $200.00 per month, the first such payment to be made no later than 60 days after the defendant's release from home confinement and another payment to be made on the same day of each month thereafter until the restitution is paid in full. Interest on any unpaid balance shall be waived.

- 2. The defendant must not engage in an occupation, business, profession, or volunteer activity that would require or enable the defendant to handle currency, funds, or financial material without the prior approval of the probation officer.
- 3. The defendant must not incur new credit charges, or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer until restitution is paid in full.
- 4. The defendant must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.
- 5. For a period of six months, the defendant is restricted to her residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits, court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities approved in advance by the probation officer or supervising officer.

For the six-month period of home detention, the defendant shall submit to location monitoring as directed by the probation office or supervising officer and comply with all of the program requirements and instructions provided. The defendant must pay all or part of the cost of the program based on her ability to pay, as determined by probation office or supervising officer.
